

FÉDÉRATION AÉRONAUTIQUE INTERNATIONALE

AIR SPORT GENERAL COMMISSION (COMMISSION AÉRONAUTIQUE SPORTIVE INTERNATIONALE (CASI))

REPORT ON ACTIVITIES SINCE THE LAST FAI GENERAL CONFERENCE.

The CASI Bureau has consisted of:

President:	Henry Lindholm, Sweden
1st Vice President	Tor Johannessen, IGC (Norway)
Vice President	Art Greenfield, USA
Vice President	Robert Carlson, Canada
Secretary	Gillian Winter, France

Due to various circumstances the President has in periods not been able to function and the 1st Vice President has been forced to act as president. The 10 NACs represented have been Australia, Canada, Czech Republic, France, Germany, Poland, Spain, Sweden, Switzerland and USA.

- 1. Appeals:
There have been no appeals for CASI to handle.
- 2. Solar-powered Airplanes.
Although the publishing of Sporting Code Section 13 was mentioned in last year's report the actual publishing did not occur until this year.
- 3. Unmanned Aerial Vehicle Records.
The fee for UAV records is now the same as for records in other categories.
- 4. Difference between Small UAVs and Model Aircraft
The working group to study this has not finished its work. The members have been Art Greenfield (USA), Chairman, Antonis Papadopoulos (GRE) and the CIAM President, Sandy Pimenoff.
- 5. CASI Web Pages.
The Spanish CASI delegate offered at last year's meeting to provide a web expert to manage the content of the CASI website.
- 6. Change of Nationality
The CASI Bureau members have in two cases of changed nationality been asked to give advice to the FAI Executive Board.
- 7. World Record over the North Pole
An Australian request for a world record over the North Pole was turned down due to lack of sufficient evidence.
- 8. World Air Games 2009
As the WAG will be held in Torino in 2009 the General Section of the Sporting Code will have to be amended at the 2007 meeting. A small working group with CIAM President Sandy Pimenoff as chairman has proposed two solutions. Solution 1 is to amend several identified paragraphs, and Solution 2 is to give the WAG 2009 a general exemption in a separate paragraph.
- 9. Election of new NAC Members to CASI 2007/2008
The following NACs will vacate their seats in 2007: Australia, Czech Republic, Germany, Spain and Switzerland. Reelection is permitted.

Tor Johannessen
CASI 1st Vice President
