New wording

3.5.3.1	First category events. A minimum of 12 NAC's shall have entered by the end of the official registration period for World Championship, as defined in the local Regulations, with entry fees paid. If there are less than 12 NAC's entered, the Air Sport Commission shall decide whether the event will take place and shall also decide whether or not the title of Champion will be awarded. For other first category events. A minimum of 6 NAC's shall have entered by the end of the official registration period for World and Continental Regional Championships, as approved by the FAI Air Sp, as defined in the local Regulations, with entry fees paid. If there are less than 6 NAC's entered, the Air Sport Commission shall decide whether the event will take place and shall also decide whether or not the title of Champion will be awarded.

Reason:

Championships are expensive to organize and due to this reason the minimum number of NAC's competing has to be higher than 4 which is a too low to manage a event.
